

OFFEROR PRESENTATION INFORMATION
 FOR RFP, BEHAVIORAL INSIGHTS
 CONTRACTOR SUPPORT FOR PROJECTS
 WITH STATE UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE AGENCIES

NASWA’s Unemployment Insurance (UI) Integrity Center (Center) will invite bidders with competitive proposals for the Behavioral Insights Contractor Support RFP to present Offeror Presentations to the RFP’s Review Panel. The main objectives of the Offeror Presentations are to provide competitive bidders with the opportunity to discuss their proposals in greater detail and to enable the RFP Review Panel to learn more about bidders’ strengths as candidates to collaborate with the Center and states on behavioral projects.

The Center is providing the following information in advance of the proposal deadline, due to the narrow time between the deadline and the planned timeline for Offeror Presentations.

Process for Scheduling Presentations

When a bidding organization submits its RFP proposal on or before March 1, the Center will follow up with an email message confirming its receipt. This email also will ask the bidder to rank defined options for presentation dates and times in order of their preference and availability. Gathering this information upfront will aid in efficient presentation scheduling.

Presentation times, however, cannot be guaranteed until the Center confirms that the bidder has been selected to present an Offeror Presentation. All bidders will be informed no later than March 8, 2022, whether they are being invited to present; bidders deemed competitive also will be notified of their scheduled presentation time in the message.

Milestone	When
RFP Proposal Deadline	March 1, 2022
Email message acknowledging receipt of bidder’s proposal, with request that the bidder rank presentation date/time options in order of preference and availability	When proposal is received
Notification of selection/non-selection and scheduling of Offeror presentations	On or before March 8, 2022
Offeror Presentations	March 14 – 18, 2022

Who: Only bidders determined to be within the competitive range for awards (based upon initial review scoring) will have the opportunity to give Offeror Presentations. Please note that this may not include all bidders.

What: Selected bidders should prepare to present:

- An overview of their proposal,
- Information on why they would be a strong partner for the Center in supporting state UI agencies' behavioral projects, and
- Any additional information they deem relevant or that they would like to highlight.

Presentations should be up to 30 minutes in length and may be followed by up to 30 minutes of questions and discussion.

All conversations between the bidder and the Center's RFP Review Panel during Offeror Presentations will be solely for clarifying purposes. Bidders will not be permitted to change or revise their proposals during these clarification periods. The Panel will not inform bidders regarding any positives or negatives identified at any time during or at the conclusion of presentations.

Where: Offeror Presentations will be conducted remotely via Zoom.

How: Selected bidders are strongly encouraged to use presentation software such as PowerPoint or Google slides for their Offeror Presentations. The bidder's team of presenters should include at least one individual from the core team anticipated to work directly with the Center team, if awarded.
